Write the number of each question answered in the margin.
