

Deliverer of Training on OCR Qualifications

Task Descriptors

All tasks must be undertaken after completing training, and in accordance with relevant instructions and to specified deadlines:

1. Prepare for and deliver the specified training course(s)
2. In the light of feedback received, adapt delivery of training as required
3. Complete pre and post training course administration tasks

You must not have been involved with / seen any forthcoming external assessment for an OCR specification.

Essential Criteria

For this task you will need:

- appropriate subject expertise
- relevant assessment experience
- ability to deliver training to adults
- engaging delivery style
- time management
- communication skills
- IT skills – use of laptop/projector
- ability to seek and act on feedback

Demonstrated by:

written application and selection task

written application

written application

selection task/interview selection task selection task and interview written application, selection task and interview

written application and selection task

written application and interview