SANDRINGHAM

Built in 1870, Sandringham was once described as “the most comfortable house in the whole of England”. It has been passed down through four generations of the British monarchy and is now the Queen’s Norfolk country house.

The main ground floor rooms are still regularly used by the Royal Family. They are open to the public, when the Family is not in residence. Sandringham is a friendly and informal place to visit, with knowledgeable guides in every room.

After your tour, why not wander round the superb gardens and see the wonderful trees and plants, delightful in every season?

Visitor Centre:

- 200-seat self service restaurant with a wide range of snacks and meals
- Gift Shop selling local and organic produce

The House is open every day from Easter Saturday to 31st October between 11.00 and 16.45
