Date: October 2009

Subject: AS/A Level Applied GCE Travel and Tourism (H189, H389, H589, H789)

MARKING CRITERIA GRIDS

There have been some errors identified in the marking criteria grids for the AS/A Level Applied GCE Travel and Tourism specification for first teaching from September 2009. These can be summarised as follows:

Unit G721: Customer service in travel and tourism (page 121)

- '12' is missing from the Mark Band 3 box for AO2

Unit G725: Organising travel (page 127)

- '9' is missing from the Mark Band 3 box for AO3

Unit G727: Working overseas (page 131)

- The marks allocated in Mark Band 1 for AO2 should read [0 1 2 3 4 5]
- The marks allocated in Mark Band 2 for AO2 should read [6 7 8 9]

Please ensure that when internally assessing coursework for these units you incorporate these changes before assessing candidate portfolios. These amendments have been incorporated into the unit recording sheets which will be available to download from our website from the end October 2009.

The latest accredited version of the GCE specification for first teaching in September 2009, and the unit recording sheets, can be downloaded from www.ocr.org.uk (navigate to Qualifications/By Type/Applied AS/A Level GCE (for first teaching in 2009)/Travel and Tourism).
