

More choice. More enjoyment.

At OCR, we're launching our exciting new Latin qualification for first teaching from September 2010. It's been carefully designed to meet the needs of learners who:

- Are studying Latin on a reduced timetable
- Would find GCSE Latin courses too demanding
- Are not intending to continue their studies to GCSE.

It can also be a stepping stone to further study of Latin at GCSE and A Level.

You'll have considerable flexibility to tailor Entry Level Latin to suit your learners' needs and interests; the opportunity to work with a wide range of materials which gives them greater choice and make the course more enjoyable for them to study.

One unit. Two components

The assessment structure for Entry Level Latin reflects that of the assessment objectives for GCSE Latin – 50% AO1 Language, and 50% AO2 Literature and other sources.

It'll consist of one unit with two components, and each component will cover one Assessment Objective.

Component 1: Latin Language

Test 1: Vocabulary, Origins of Words and Grammar

Test 2: Comprehension and Translation Skills

Externally set

Internally assessed; externally moderated

Component 2: Roman Culture

One task of 400 words

Or

Two tasks of 200 words

Set by teachers

Internally assessed; externally moderated

Flexibility of content

The course allows you to support your learners' study of Latin language with a component on Roman culture. They can focus on literature (either in Latin or in translation), study a Roman site, or learn about topics such as slavery, Roman education, gladiators or the Roman army.

Part of full suite of Classics qualifications

Entry Level Latin is just part of our provision for Classical subjects. We also offer GCSE and A Levels in Latin, Classical Civilisation, Ancient History and Classical Greek, so if your learners do want to continue their study of the classical world, there are lots of qualifications they can progress to from Entry Level Latin.

All the back up you'd expect

To assist you in teaching our qualifications, we pride ourselves on providing effective support at every stage. In creating our wide range of useful resources, we've talked to teachers and other key stakeholders to make sure we're offering you the most practical help we can.

Free training to find out more

If you'd like to find out more about Entry Level Latin, why not join us at a Get Ready course this year? Whether you're a new or experienced teacher, this FREE half-day session will give you a useful overview of this new specification.

Key features of this Get Ready course include:

- A look at the structure, content and assessment methods
- An introduction to the support and resources we provide
- A summary of the benefits our new specification offers you.

Book today for one of the following free sessions:

17th September 2010 (am)	Birmingham
23rd September 2010 (am)	Bristol
27th September 2010 (am)	London
12th October 2010 (am)	Manchester
13th October 2010 (am)	Newcastle

Want to find out more?

To find out more about this exciting new course or about the free INSET training, please visit our website at www.ocreventbooker.org.uk

www.ocr.org.uk

OCR customer contact centre

General qualifications

Telephone 01223 553998

Facsimile 01223 552627

Email general.qualifications@ocr.org.uk

For staff training purposes and as part of our quality assurance programme your call may be recorded or monitored.
© OCR 2010 Oxford Cambridge and RSA Examinations is a Company Limited by Guarantee. Registered in England.
Registered office 1 Hills Road, Cambridge CB1 2EU. Registered company number 3484466. OCR is an exempt charity.

FS 27093