

Title:	What is Enterprise
Level:	Two
Credit value:	Two
Learning outcomes	Assessment criteria
The learner will:	The learner can:
1. Understand what is meant by enterprise	1.1 Explain what is meant by enterprise 1.2 Identify three examples of activities or forms of organisation that show what is meant by enterprise
2. Understand what is meant by enterprising skills and behaviour	2.1 Describe enterprising skills, for example, managing money, problem solving or communication skills 2.2 Describe enterprising behaviours, for example, doing things differently or taking calculated risks 2.3 Describe the personal skills and qualities that might help you to be enterprising
3. Understand how enterprising skills and behaviour might be useful in different settings	3.1 Explain how enterprising skills might be useful in, for example, self-employment, employment, education or volunteering 3.2 Explain what the advantages of having these skills might be in a one specific context 3.3 Explain what you might take into account when deciding whether setting up and running an enterprise is appropriate for you
Additional information about the unit
Unit aim(s)	To develop an understanding of what is meant by enterprise, enterprising skills and behaviour and their usefulness in different settings.
Unit expiry date
Details of the relationship between the unit and relevant national occupational standards (if appropriate)

Details of the relationship between the unit and other standards or curricula (if appropriate)
Assessment requirements specified by a sector or regulatory body (if appropriate)
Endorsement of the unit by a sector or other appropriate body (if required)	SFEDI
Location of the unit within the subject/sector classification system
Name of the organisation submitting the unit
Availability for use	