

DHL Servicepoint Website Changes – from June 2011

The Servicepoint website has changed. The information in this document updates the information provided in the Assessor Courier Guide Interactive CD.

- To find a Servicepoint, you will still log-on to the same web address:
www.dhlservicepoint.co.uk
- And you will still need to click Find your nearest DHL Servicepoint.

- You will then need to:
 - enter your postcode
 - and tick Are you a DHL account customer and need to send a parcel? It is extremely important that this option is ticked, to ensure that when you go to that Servicepoint, your parcels are accepted.

The results of the postcode search will be displayed on the lower part of the screen. The Servicepoint nearest to you will be displayed in full.

At the very bottom of the screen it will list, by distance, other available Servicepoints.
