

Dear graduate,

Congratulations on passing your recent qualification!

You are now eligible to join the Register of Exercise Professionals (REPs).

Being a member will help you to gain employment in the industry, provide you with credibility as an exercise professional, as well as a whole host of other benefits, such as:

- Low cost professional insurance
- Advanced directory listing – enabling you to market your services to employers and the public
- Training portal – helping you to research further training options
- International recognition – should you want to work in other countries
- Online CPD record – demonstrate that you continue to be 'fit to practice' by keeping your skills updated
- Journals, resources and support – members receive journals and regular industry updates
- Marketing materials – posters, car stickers, badges, Personal Training Log Books, business referral cards, consumer leaflets
- Conventions
- Use of the REPs logo – to give your marketing a formal stamp of approval

Please visit Exerciseregister.org to register your application online.

Yours sincerely,
the Register of Exercise Professionals
