- 1 Harlan has previously been convicted for committing some of the 'most serious offences' that resulted in him losing his good repute. Regulation EC 1071/2009 sets out the 'most serious infringements that should result in the loss of good repute', as also detailed in the guidance notes to the application form for an operator licence (GV79G).

Identify FIVE different legal areas in which Harlan could have committed some of these 'most serious infringements' and, for each legal area, describe the nature of the infringement. Complete the table below, an example is provided.

Legal Area	Nature of Infringement
Example: Operator licensing	Example: Carrying passengers or goods without holding a valid Community licence

(10 marks)

- 2 Draw up a driver schedule for the outward journey from Northampton to Stuttgart via Harwich and Hoek van Holland, Route option 2. Your schedule must begin when the driver starts work in Northampton and end immediately on arrival at Stuttgart on the next day. You must use only one driver who cannot extend his daily driving beyond nine hours.

Notes

You MUST show local times throughout.

You MUST show the destination for all driving periods.

Tachograph symbols are not acceptable for activities.

Start time	Finish time	Activity
