SECTION A – Commentary Questions

Answer either Question 1 or Question 2.

Marks are awarded in parts (b) and (c) of Questions 1 and 2 for the quality of written communication in your answer.

1 Study the photograph and answer the questions.

The Warrior Vase from Mycenae

- (a) The photograph shows the Warrior Vase from Mycenae. Describe some other Mycenaean artefacts made of pottery/clay. You should include details from at least four different artefacts in your answer. [10]
- (b) Using the Warrior Vase as a starting point, discuss how complete a picture of Mycenaean weapons and armour we have. In your answer, you should include discussion of a range of different weapons and armour and the limitations of such evidence. [20]
- (c) 'All the evidence indicates that Mycenaean society was a warlike society with no interest in anything else.' How far do you agree with this statement? You should support your answer with evidence from specific Mycenaean sites. [25]

Do not answer this question if you have already answered Question 1.

Marks are awarded in parts (b) and (c) of Questions 1 and 2 for the quality of written communication in your answer.

2 Study the diagram below and answer the questions.

A drawing from Grave Gamma, Mycenae

- (a) Describe what is shown in the diagram above. What other types of diagrams and drawings do archaeologists use? [10]
- (b) Which dating method do you think is the most useful to an archaeologist when dating organic remains? In your answer, you should consider a range of different dating methods. [20]
- (c) How useful are organic remains in teaching us about an ancient society? In your answer, you should include discussion of both the Mycenaeans and any other Classical society which you have studied. [25]

[Section A Total: 55]

SECTION B – Essays

Answer one question.

Start your answer on a new page.

Marks are awarded for the quality of written communication in your answer.

- 3 ‘Accurate recording of information during an excavation is essential for an archaeologist to understand an archaeological site.’ How far do you agree with this opinion?

In your answer, you should:

- consider the different methods of recording information used during an excavation
- discuss the reasons why the accurate recording of information is so important
- support your answer with reference to evidence from Classical sites you have studied. [45]

- 4 Choose one Mycenaean or Classical site you have studied. How would you present it to the public? What opportunities and challenges would you face?

In your answer, you should:

- consider different methods of presenting a site effectively to the public
- include an analysis of the problems you might encounter
- support your answer with specific detailed evidence from one Mycenaean or Classical site. [45]

- 5 Which site do you consider to be the most useful in helping us to understand how ordinary people lived in the ancient world?

In your answer, you should:

- include details from at least three sites
- consider what the sites have taught us about the lives of ordinary people
- provide specific detailed evidence from the Classical sites you have studied. [45]

[Section B Total: 45]
