Al Kuai Transport Ltd has asked Mehmet for advice about allocating a driver to work on deliveries tomorrow (Saturday). Details of the day’s work are set out in ‘Other issue - 1’ in Mehmet’s report. A summary of five drivers’ recent activities is set out in Fig. 2.

Use the information provided in the case study to advise your client, as follows.

(a) For each of the five drivers, state whether they can or cannot drive on this journey tomorrow.

Driver 2..............................................................................................................................................

Driver 3..............................................................................................................................................

Driver 4..............................................................................................................................................

Driver 5.............................................................................................................................................. [5]

(b) For each of the drivers that you have stated CANNOT carry out this work, explain why that driver should not be allowed to drive on this journey.

Mehmet has looked at Al Kuai Transport Ltd’s vehicle files, as described in his report. These files should contain certificates relating to tests, calibrations and/or thorough examinations carried out on the vehicles.

Give FIVE such tests, calibrations or thorough examinations that must be completed on behalf of your client for the vehicles already in its service.

For each one, give the maximum interval between such tests, calibrations or thorough examinations.

Mehmet has reported that Al Kuai Transport Ltd would like to introduce a 'nil defect' reporting system for recording their drivers' vehicle checks. He has started to design an instruction for your client's drivers, which is set out below.

You must complete Mehmet's draft instruction to drivers. Outline TEN further actions they should take when carrying out vehicle checks.

- Carry out a visual check to make sure that all lights and reflectors are present, clean, secure and operational.
- Carry out a visual check on all tyres - use a tread depth gauge to measure.
- Carry out a visual check on all wheel fixings (wheel nuts), checking indicators.
- Carry out an operational check on windscreen washer and wiper operation, including wiper blade condition.
- Carry out a visual check on mirrors to make sure that all are present, clean and secure.
- Report any defects immediately and in writing.
Mehmet has sent you his report on Al Kuai Transport Ltd's activities, but he has failed to identify any offences that the company has committed or any breaches of its operator licence undertakings. You are required to report to the company about any such events.

Using the information provided by Mehmet in his report, set out in the case study, describe NINE offences, or breaches of operator licence undertakings, that your client has committed.
Mehmet has reported that Al Kuai Transport Ltd has asked your company to prepare a driver schedule for the digger collections and deliveries described in 'Other issues - 2' in his report. Mehmet's incomplete draft is set out below.

Use the information provided in the case study to complete the driver schedule, finishing when the driver completes a daily rest in Thirsk.

Notes:

You MUST state the destination for all driving periods.

Tachograph symbols are NOT acceptable for the tachograph mode.

Mehmet has promised Al Kuai Transport Ltd that you will prepare a costing sheet for the journey described in the 'Financial' section of his report. Details of relevant costing information for your client are set out in Fig.1 in the case study.

Use the information provided in the case study to prepare a schedule to show the total cost of undertaking this journey and the amount to be charged to your client's customer.

Notes:

You MUST show all of your workings and name each cost.

You MUST give all of your answers to the nearest penny.
ADDITIONAL PAPER

The question number MUST be inserted beside each answer.
