Your centre will advise you of the dates of the 10 hours supervised time.

Once the 10 hours supervised time has started you are not permitted to continue on your preparatory work. This is kept securely with your outcome(s) and submitted at the end of the 10 hours supervised time. You must have your preparatory work with you when the supervised time begins.

The starting points are arranged into three sections:

Section 1: Written Starting Points

Section 2: Visual Starting Points

Section 3: Art and Design Appreciation Starting Points.

You must demonstrate in both your preparatory work and your outcome(s) that you have:
