Year of entry:

Through their action, students should practise a range of citizenship skills including:

- research and enquiry
- interpretation of evidence
- planning
- collaboration
- problem solving
- advocacy
- campaigning
- evaluation

Evidence should include 'primary' sources gathered through students' own research and 'secondary' sources produced by others such as surveys by government, local authorities or interest groups.

I confirm students in my centre have been provided with, and undertaken, a programme of action based on the guidance provided in the specification.

If you do not return a Citizenship Action statement to OCR by the deadline it will be treated as malpractice and/or maladministration (under JCQ procedures <https://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/malpractice>)).
