3 Jeremy, 29, has a brain injury resulting from a car accident. Before the accident Jeremy shared a flat with two friends and he had a job as a mechanic. Jeremy's brain injury means that he will need care and support 24 hours a day. His mental capacity has been assessed as 'limited', though he is able to communicate verbally. Jeremy's parents have been advised that residential care is best for Jeremy.

(a) Describe three challenges to adopting a person-centred approach for Jeremy's care and support.
