GCSE (9–1) Drama

J316/01/02 Devising drama

To be given to candidates on or after 1 September in the academic year before certification

Cohort: 2018–2020

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TEACHERS
• There are ten stimuli in this paper.
• Time given to candidates for preparatory work and assessment time can be determined by centres.
• The marking criteria for this component are in the specification.
• This paper is for candidates taking their final examinations in June 2020.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CANDIDATES
• You must choose one of the ten stimuli.
• You must work in groups to create your drama. A group can be between two and six performers plus one designer per design role.
• Your group’s devised drama work must develop from one of the stimuli for your performance.
• All stimuli are available to both performer and designer roles.
• Your portfolio must contain your own unaided work and be completed individually.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES
• The total mark for this component is 60.
• This document consists of 16 pages.
Guidance for Candidates

There are three sections to this assessment:

• Section 1 is the exploration of the chosen stimulus and creating your initial ideas.
• Section 2 is the creation and development of your devised drama in your chosen role as either a performer or a designer, including analysing and evaluating the work in progress.
• Section 3 is your final performance and evaluation.

Your devised performance must be developed based on one stimulus from this paper. There are 10 stimuli in this paper, one of each of the following:

- Historical event
- Instrumental music
- News article
- Painting
- Person/People
- Photograph
- Poem
- Prose
- Sculpture
- Song

You will work in groups of between two and six performers plus one designer per design role, although you are not required to have designers in your group.

During the exploratory stage you will work collaboratively to create the narrative or concept for your performance. After this you will focus on your chosen role while rehearsing, refining, amending and evaluating the performance ready for an audience, justifying why you have made changes to the devised piece. You will perform the devised piece, communicating the meaning to the audience, reflecting your adaptation of the stimulus. After the performance you will write an evaluation of your own performance. The devised work must be your own original work in response to the chosen stimulus.

You must create a portfolio to support the development of your devised piece, outlining the realisation of the adaptation of the selected stimulus. The portfolio should be structured in three sections.

Section 1 – Research and initial ideas.

Section 2 – Creating and developing drama including analysing and evaluating the work in progress.

Section 3 – An evaluation of your final piece of devised drama.
The recommended maximum length of a portfolio should be:

- 20 sides of A4 which may include:
  - notes, sketches, diagrams, scripts, storyboards, photographs and annotations.

OR

- 12 minutes of recorded presentation which may include:
  - video diary/video blogs, recording of performance activities created through the devised performance and slides/titles with audio commentary.

OR

- 2000 words of continuous prose.

A portfolio can also contain a combination of the above. The length of each format should be in proportion to the assessed work it represents. The following combinations are shown as examples of combined portfolio formats.

- 10 sides of A4 with 1000 words of prose.
- 10 sides of A4 with 6 minutes of recorded presentation.
- 6 minutes of recorded presentation with 1000 words.
- 7 sides of A4 with 1400 words of prose.
- 14 sides of A4 with 700 words of prose.
- 7 sides of A4 with 8 minutes of recorded presentation.
- 14 sides of A4 with 4 minutes of recorded presentation.
- 4 minutes of recorded presentation with 1400 words of prose.
- 8 minutes of recorded presentation with 700 words of prose.
- 7 pages of A4 with 4 minutes of recorded presentation and 700 words of prose.

Appendices are not permitted.

You must also create a final, polished realisation of your devised drama with a clear link to the selected stimulus. The final assessed performance must be video recorded.

If you are working with or as a designer you are expected to work collaboratively in rehearsals. If you are working without designers you are expected to realise a minimal amount of lighting, sound, set and/or costume as is necessary for the performance.

Performer requirements (AO2)

The minimum time for a devised performance is 5 minutes and the maximum time is 15 minutes.

If you are a performer you should ensure that the roles within the performance are demanding enough to allow sufficient demonstration of evidence that meets the marking criteria.
Designer requirements (AO2)

If you are a designer you must work with a performance group whose performance meets the minimum times set out above.

You can choose from one of the following design roles:

- lighting
- sound
- lighting and sound (combined) *
- set (including props and multimedia staging)
- costume (including hair, makeup and masks).

* Lighting and sound (combined) cannot be chosen where a lighting and/or sound designer is part of the performance group.

You should ensure that the content and structure of the devised drama contains sufficient design demands to allow the demonstration of evidence to meet the marking criteria.

The minimum requirements for you as a designer are as follows:

- Lighting – a full lighting design for the performance with a cue sheet detailing lanterns used and the differing lighting states. A minimum of six lighting changes evident in the performance. Lights up and lights down are not included in this number. Discuss with appropriate staff the selection, rigging and plotting of the lights. During the performance you must operate the lighting desk.

- Sound – a full sound sheet with original and copied cues leading to a finalised sound CD or MP3 playlist on a memory stick for use in the final performance. A minimum of six sound cues evident in the performance. During the performance you must operate the sound desk.

- Lighting and sound (combined) – a combination of the requirements for sound and lighting which are approximately equal in weighting and which total six cues in performance.

- Set – a scale model and a detailed ground plan of the set. Sourcing set (and props) for the performance and supervision of the construction of set where appropriate. You must dress the set ready for performance and one set design must be realised in the final performance.

- Costume – a final design of:
  - either one full costume including hair and makeup detail which is sourced and realised in performance
  - or one full costume including mask(s) which is sourced and realised in performance
  - or two costumes for characters (excluding hair, makeup or masks) which are sourced and realised in performance. These costumes can be for different characters or different costumes for one character.
UFO sighting in Roswell

In early July 1947, about 75 miles from the town of Roswell, New Mexico, a farmer found something unusual in his field: a mess of metallic sticks held together with tape; chunks of plastic and foil reflectors; and scraps of a heavy, glossy, paper-like material. Unable to identify the strange objects, the farmer called Roswell’s sheriff. The sheriff, in turn, called officials at the nearby Roswell Army Air Force base. Soldiers fanned out across the farmer’s field, gathering the mysterious debris and whisking it away in armoured trucks.

Boy, 12, steals credit card and goes on Bali holiday after fight with mother

Sydney boy boarded flight alone to Perth, then another to Indonesia, where he checked into the All Seasons hotel

A 12-year-old Sydney boy stole his parents’ credit card, tricked his grandmother into giving him his passport and flew to Bali on his own after a family argument.

The boy, given the pseudonym Drew by A Current Affair, was told he couldn’t go to Bali by his mother but managed to book himself flights (researching an airline that allowed 12-year-olds to fly unaccompanied) and a hotel room, and to depart the country unimpeded.

Telling his family he was going to school, he rode his razor scooter to his local train station, from where he travelled to the airport and, using a self-service check-in terminal, boarded a flight for Perth, then another for Indonesia, the Nine Network program reported.

He was only quizzed once, at Perth airport, when staff asked him for identification to prove he was over 12. Guardian Australia has independently confirmed the boy made the trip.

“They just asked for my student ID and passport to prove that I’m over 12 and that I’m in secondary school,” he told A Current Affair. “It was great because I wanted to go on an adventure.”

In Bali, he checked in to the All Seasons hotel, telling staff he was waiting for his sister to arrive.

After his school reported he was absent, his family scrambled to find out where he was. Discovering he was in Bali, his mother, Emma, flew there to collect him.

Emma said the boy doesn’t like hearing the word “no”.

Matilda Who Told Lies, and Was Burned to Death – A poem by Hilaire Belloc

Matilda told such Dreadful Lies,
It made one Gasp and Stretch one’s Eyes;
Her Aunt, who, from her Earliest Youth,
Had kept a Strict Regard for Truth,
   Attempted to Believe Matilda:
The effort very nearly killed her,
And would have done so, had not She Discovered this Infirmity.
   For once, towards the Close of Day,
   Matilda, growing tired of play,
   And finding she was left alone,
   Went tiptoe to the Telephone
   And summoned the Immediate Aid
   Of London’s Noble Fire-Brigade.
   Within an hour the Gallant Band
   Were pouring in on every hand,
From Putney, Hackney Downs, and Bow.
   With Courage high and Hearts a-glow,
   They galloped, roaring through the Town,
   ‘Matilda’s House is Burning Down!’
   Inspired by British Cheers and Loud
   Proceeding from the Frenzied Crowd,
   They ran their ladders through a score
   Of windows on the Ball Room Floor;
   And took Peculiar Pains to Souse
   The Pictures up and down the House,
   Until Matilda’s Aunt succeeded
   In showing them they were not needed;
   And even then she had to pay
   To get the Men to go away,
   It happened that a few Weeks later
   Her Aunt was off to the Theatre
   To see that Interesting Play
   The Second Mrs. Tanqueray.
   She had refused to take her Niece
   To hear this Entertaining Piece:
   A Deprivation Just and Wise
   To Punish her for Telling Lies.
   That Night a Fire did break out -
   You should have heard Matilda Shout!
You should have heard her Scream and Bawl,
   And throw the window up and call
   To People passing in the Street -
   (The rapidly increasing Heat
   Encouraging her to obtain
   Their confidence) – but all in vain!
   For every time she shouted ‘Fire!’
   They only answered ‘Little Liar!’
   And therefore when her Aunt returned,
Matilda, and the House, were Burned.
“What is REAL?” asked the Rabbit one day, when they were lying side by side near the nursery fender, before Nana came to tidy the room. “Does it mean having things that buzz inside you and a stick-out handle?”

“Real isn’t how you are made,” said the Skin Horse. “It’s a thing that happens to you. When a child loves you for a long, long time, not just to play with, but REALLY loves you, then you become Real.”

“Does it hurt?” asked the Rabbit.

“Sometimes,” said the Skin Horse, for he was always truthful. “When you are Real you don’t mind being hurt.”

“Does it happen all at once, like being wound up,” he asked, “or bit by bit?”

“It doesn’t happen all at once,” said the Skin Horse. “You become. It takes a long time. That's why it doesn’t happen often to people who break easily, or have sharp edges, or who have to be carefully kept. Generally, by the time you are Real, most of your hair has been loved off, and your eyes drop out and you get loose in your joints and very shabby. But these things don’t matter at all, because once you are Real you can’t be ugly, except to people who don’t understand.”
