Question Part

1	a	Son of God Saviour Redeemer
1	b	Christians believe sin is an act that goes against God. They believe sin is <sup>is</sup> an <sup>an</sup> act that if built up will take you to Hell. e.g. being murder is a sin as it goes against the ten commandments.
1	c	They believe the second coming of Christ means the end of world, this means the Day of the Judgement is here, which means people will be judged on how they have lived their lives.
1	d	Christians can learn from the Genesis narrative that God is the creator of everything.
		Most Christians will learn God is transcendent, & they may say this because it says in Genesis 1 "God saw nothing but darkness, before he created light, heavens, Earth etc, this indicates to them God must be outside of physical and logical understanding."

Question Part

Other Christians will learn that he is omnipotent & they could learn this because it also says in Genesis 1 "God said: 'Let there be light' and there was light" This also indicates how 'all powerful' God due to the fact his words alone created such a source.

1 e Some Christians believe that the best way to live life is to follow the example of Jesus as they believe Jesus is ~~the~~ the most important, ~~the~~ if not, only role model a Christian has. This is because it is impossible to follow God's example as he is not human, and it is impossible to relate to him. On the other hand Jesus was a human, as it says "he was born of the virgin Mary" therefore we are able to relate to him and follow his examples.

Other Christians may also believe the best way to live life is to follow his example due to the fact he went around evangelising to people, Christians believe evangelising is one of the ways to follow Jesus' ~~best~~ example as ~~he~~ one of his last instructions were "Go around the world and spread the word of God"

Question Part

This therefore indicates that ~~that~~ in order to live a life God wants (best life) is to follow Jesus' example which contained evangelising.

Non Christians believe that living a life like Jesus isn't the best way because of the significant differences in our two societies. For example Jesus didn't have sex before marriage, however in today's society, to most non-Christians that would be seen as abnormal, hence why they believe living like the way Jesus did is not the best way.

I believe, living your life like Jesus could be the best way to live your life, as he ~~was~~ said to be the Son of God, therefore making him having similar characteristics & aspects to him e.g. loving, merciful, which is all aspects people should use to live a ~~good~~ their best life. However, some acts Jesus ~~did~~ ~~may~~ somethinge such as 'sex before marriage' is outdated, and not really part of today's society hence why it might not always be the best thing to live by his complete example.

Question Part

to conclude, living by Jesus' example is a good thing but not always as some things he has done can be seen as different and abnormal in today's society.

2 a Omniscent, Omnipotent, Omnibenevolent.

b Angels are one of God's creations. They were created by a divine light called Nur. They all have different roles e.g. Isra'il comes to take people's souls as they're dying, or Mikail who is responsible for sending rain and thunder on God's command, he is also the gate keeper of Heaven.

c One objection about pre destination is that God already has a plan for your life, therefore he knows everything you're going to do as he has seen it, this therefore leads to the argument that if he has a plan for you, how can he possibly judge you on the Day of Judgement

2	d	 Muslims All most Muslims do believe the Qur'an is the final message from Allah.                     Most Muslims believe it is the last words of God God as it came from Mohammed (PBUH), they believe this because Mohammed (PBUH) was the last prophet of to Allah, and therefore brought the last words of from Allah just like other prophets e.g. Isa Isa, Musa, Dawud etc.                     Other Muslims also believe it is the last words of God as it is written in Arabic, they believe that the Qur'an cannot be changed or altered as it is Allah's last words so it remains in Arabic, hence why it is the last word of God.
e		           Some Muslims believe it is the best way for one's life is to follow the example of the prophets, as they were a selected few who pleased Allah, and who Allah trusted to spread his word e.g. Ibrahim, The Father of Truth, was instructed to by God to spread his message.

Other Muslims may believe ~~living~~ living life like the prophets may not be the best way to live life as they are not Allah themselves. They may believe ~~living like Allah~~ trying to live like Allah (perfection) is better than living than mere servants for him. Allah <sup>says</sup> ~~says~~ in the ~~Qur'an~~ "God is the creator of everything" This indicates Allah's ultimate perfection hence why other Christians may try to live like him instead of prophets.

Non ~~Chris~~ Muslims ~~may~~ such as Christians may believe it is impossible to live like a Divine entity as there is no way of knowing how Allah truly is, however his hand picked prophets are the closest ~~the~~ people will ever get to living like ~~the~~ Allah.

I also believe that it is impossible to try and imitate an entity that is perfection and not a person, hence why I believe living like the prophets will be the best way to live as God. Specifically chose them which meant they must've already been living like him

		Allah wanted it
4	a	Christians believe pre-marital sex is wrong, this is because they think it goes against God as it something which is not present presented to God like marriage, so therefore it is a sin.
	b	Christians believe women have some sort of role in families. Some Christians may believe women have a significant role in Christian families as they believe women are the significant other of men as God said "man is to lonely" and began to create Adam's wife Eve. Other Christians may say that without women men won't be able to marry in the eyes of God (which is what he wants) this therefore means men won't be able to re reproduce children without women.

c All Christians believe their teachings have some sort of influence of equality.

~~Some~~ <sup>Most</sup> Christians believe the people are seeing people more ~~they~~ equally, they say this because it says in the Bible 'God created man in his own image' this indicates everyone should see ~~them~~ ~~themselves~~ themselves ~~equally~~ equally as they're all formed from 'the image of God'.

Some Christians believe equality is being recognised more because of Jesus' teachings which state "love your neighbour", "Do to other people as you wish to be treated" "Treat other people as you wish to be treated" All these teachings strengthen the influence of equality.

d Some Christians believe religion should not divide families as of the teachings Jesus taught in the Bible e.g. 'love your neighbour' ~~as~~ which teaches everyone (especially family) should be loved ~~to~~ <sup>despite</sup> ~~matter~~ who they are, or what they've done.

Question Part

Other Christians may say it should divide families due to the fact in their religion ~~worship~~ worshipping other ~~gods~~ gods is a sin as it says in Exodus 20: 'You shall serve no other gods before me', this shows that you should worship no other god. therefore a Christian might ~~say~~ interpret God's message as to Muslims as what they're doing will send them to hell hence why they can't be associated with them.

Non Christians might say it shouldn't divide families. They may say this because if people truly have a love for each other they won't let religion come in the way of it, especially if it's a couple of different religions.

I believe that religion should not divide families due to the fact Jesus' teachings contained a significant amount about love therefore religion shouldn't come in the way of it.

Question Part

Ultimately, according to Jesus and his teachings, ~~you~~ your personal religion should not affect your love for one another, however you can still evangelise to some people, which is the act of getting God's ~~best~~ <sup>word</sup> around.

7 a Christmas, Easter, Boxing Day

c Christians have a variety of views to different religions.

Some Christians believe you should accept other religions, this is known as intra-faith society, where people of different religions accept each other's religions, engage in it and try to learn from it. This builds a society of friendship between Christianity and other religions, which reduces rate of discrimination, war, etc. It also uses Jesus' teachings 'love your neighbour' as Christians are building an intra-faith society.

Other Christians believe other religions are wrong, firstly because all Christians believe Jesus Christ is the Son of God which is essential to get to Heaven, and therefore they tend not to form friendships with other religions and their general view of other religions stay negative.
