SECTION A

‘Urban DuoTeam’ is a new city centre-based sports event that is to be launched in the UK. Teams of two athletes will compete on mountain bikes on a specially built 5km course before running 5km around the city streets. Each athlete completes their ride and run before handing over to their team mate. The aim of the event is to bring a new exciting team sport to cities in the UK to help encourage people to get involved in sport. A sports drink company has already agreed to sponsor the competition which will take place in six cities.

1 You have been asked to develop some ideas for an advertising campaign to promote the new event.

(a) Identify four items that could be included on a visualisation diagram for a promotional advert in a travel magazine for the new ‘Urban DuoTeam’ event.

3 The first 'Urban DuoTeam' event will take place in May 2021 in Cardiff, with five other events taking place in June (Glasgow), July (Belfast), August (Leeds), September (London) and October (Birmingham). Each event needs to be promoted at the previous event so the posters for the next one need to be ready for that event. An Internet campaign will run all summer from April through to October. The travel magazine adverts need to be ready at the start of March.

A work plan will need to be created to develop the marketing campaign.

(a) Identify two milestones for the development of the marketing campaign.
