

Unit Title:	Take details of customer service problems
Unit number	C2
Level:	1
Credit value:	4
Guided learning hours:	27

Unit purpose and aim

However good the customer service of the learners' organisation is, some problems will occur. Learners may not have the authority or experience to deal with the problem by themselves so it is important to collect helpful information for those who will deal with it. The learner will need to be able to identify that there is a problem, discover detailed information about that problem and pass on the information so that the problem can be tackled. This unit is about how to collect information about a customer service problem, pass it to the right people in the organisation and keep the customer informed about what is being done.

Assessment

This qualification is internally assessed by centre staff and externally verified by OCR Assessors.

Evidence requirements

1. Wherever possible your evidence should be based on a real job, whether paid or voluntary, and when dealing with real customers, whether internal or external to the organisation. However, for this Unit, evidence based on a realistic working environment or a work placement is permissible. Simulation is also allowed for evidence within this Unit but ideally this should be based on either previous or existing experience from a work placement, a realistic working environment or real work. (Guidelines for the assessment of Simulated Activities and a Realistic Working Environment can be found in the OCR Customer Service Centre Handbook which can be downloaded from the OCR website: www.ocr.org.uk).
2. You may collect the evidence for the Unit through work in a private sector organisation, a not-for-profit organisation or a public services organisation.
3. You must provide evidence that shows you have done this over a sufficient period of time with different customers on different occasions for your assessor to be confident that you are competent.
4. You need to include evidence of taking details of customer service problems from customers who are:
 - a easy to deal with
 - b difficult to deal with.
5. You may include evidence that you have passed details to a colleague able to deal with the problem either verbally or in writing.
