Interpretation B

An extract from the book 'The Nazi Seizure of Power' by historian W S Allen, published in 1965. The book contains a detailed study of the experiences of the German town of Northeim. This extract was based on an interview with Hermann Schulze in the 1960s.

William Sheridan Allen, 'The Nazi Seizure of Power: The Experience Of A Single German Town, 1922-1945', p 188-189, Franklin Watts, 1965. From first line: "Hermann Schulze lost his job at a railway yard because he was a member of the Social Democratic Party (SPD)." [https://www.gutenberg.org/files/50445/50445-h/50445-h.htm]

Source C

An extract from a set of instructions published in 'The Oberstdorf Village and Tourist News' (a small, local village newspaper) on 1 April 1933. Oberstdorf was a remote village and tourist resort.

The instructions relate to the nationwide boycott of Jewish shops and businesses organised by the Nazis.

The Oberstdorf NSDAP (Nazi) Action Committee will decide which shops, department stores and law firms are Jewish. Descendants and relatives of Jews will be counted as Jews for the purposes of this order.

The following banners on lorries or trucks must be driven through the streets in the following order: Boycott all Jewish businesses! Don't buy in Jewish department stores! Don't go to Jewish lawyers or doctors! The Jews are our downfall!

Source D

The front cover of the 'Munich Illustrated Press', published in July 1933. The caption says, 'Early morning roll call (register) in the education camp'. The camp it is referring to is Dachau.

Answer Question 8 or Question 9.

- 8* 'In the period January 1933 to August 1934, the passing of new laws was the most important method Hitler used to gain total power.'

How far do you agree?

Give reasons for your answer.

[18]

- 9* 'The key turning point in the development of Nazi anti-Jewish policy was the use of the Einsatzgruppen in 1941.'

How far do you agree with this view for the period 1935–1945?

Give reasons for your answer.
