Introduction

The OCR Level 5 Diploma in Health and Social Care and Children and Young People's Services (Adults' Management) (England) is a competence based qualification; that is it assesses the skills, knowledge and understanding a learner has within a work situation.

OCR Level 5 Diploma in Health and Social Care and Children and Young People's Services (Adults' Management) (England)

- This qualification is designed with mandatory units, plus optional units.
- The qualification is made up of a number of units, each of which carries a credit value.
- The total number of credits required for this qualification is 80.

The flexible nature of this qualification means that training can be delivered in unit-sized chunks, providing a flexible approach to learning and achievement.

Target audience

The recognition of this qualification in relation to the Health and Social Care and Children and Young People's Services (Adults' Management) workforce is applicable in England only. This qualification is suitable for those who work within the health and social care work. The qualification is open to learners from the age of 19 onwards, of either gender and there are no entry barriers on grounds of race, creed or previous academic attainment or learning. The units of this qualification describe the level and breadth of performance expected of anyone working in this area.

Qualification content

The qualification is based on the national occupational standards developed by the Sector Skills Council, Skills for Care and Development, meaning that learners will gain sector-relevant knowledge that is highly sought after by employers.

Each individual unit that comprises the qualification has been assigned a level and credit value, making individual units worthwhile learning in their own right.

Assessment

The OCR Level 5 Diploma in Health and Social Care and Children and Young People's Services (Adults' Management) (England) is a competence based qualification. This means that it is linked to a learner's ability to competently perform a range of tasks connected with their work. To gain the qualification a learner must demonstrate the level of competence described in the units.

Certification

Learners can gain both unit and full qualification certificates. The full qualification certificate will detail the qualification title and the QCA accreditation information. The unit certificate will also detail the credit value of the unit achieved.
